If the parents are not married and one of the parents is not Catholic, does the non-Catholic parent agree to the Baptism and to raising the child Catholic? Yes No

One Godparent is required for Baptism. By the code of canon law this sponsor may not be a parent and must be 16 years of age and fully initiated, that is he/she must have received Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Furthermore the sponsor must be a practicing Catholic. If there are two Godparents, there must be one male and one female. A non-Catholic may serve as a Christian witness alongside a Catholic sponsor.
